

Blockade

- ① Limited lead -- <sup>new</sup> appears major (sub? less) less difficulty with other ② Soviets agree to stop <sup>new</sup> imports over sea in areas
- ③ Probability of Soviet agreement -- high or not certain
- ④ Cost of imports
- ⑤ Compromised action w/ Berlin -- implication
  - ⑥ Equalized effect w/ Berlin -- denial of access to sea -- war -- w/ Berlin (an important)
  - ⑦ Same & all other allied forces
- ⑧ Full blockade and no food or access <sup>to Berlin</sup> <sup>if blockade v/s</sup> ⑨ Owns Berlin and can't be denied <sup>open to an</sup> <sup>(A) blockade</sup>
- ⑩ Own imports <sup>possible</sup>
- ⑪ Fuller blockade) but  $\geq 1/2$  <sup>area Berlin in</sup>
  - ⑫ Contingency plan in Berlin -- preferable <sup>over</sup> own

(5) In Cuba

- Point toward -- continuity Fidelia and now not within Camilo, a central role in now not (it is mostly under higher blockade)

(6) Probably no military response by Castro if Soviets organize -- but ~~so far~~ <sup>so far</sup> in and ~~not~~ <sup>not</sup> with it clear point not long ago

(7) Soviets do not organize

- Purpose? To make no fire first? ~~fire~~
